

On-line Documents Frequently Asked Questions:

What is a Condominium Corporation Number (CC#)?

The Condominium Corporation number, or CC#, is a unique, seven digit number that is assigned to the Condominium Corporation when it is legally registered. It appears on all the documents of the Corporation, such as the By-laws, Budget, Insurance Certificate, Audited Financial Statements, Reserve Fund Study, AGM Minutes and correspondence from the management company.

Where can I find my Condominium Corporation Number (CC#)?

The Condominium Corporation number, or CC#, appears on all the documents of the Corporation, such as the By-laws, Budget, Insurance Certificate, Audited Financial Statements, Reserve Fund Study, AGM Minutes and correspondence from the management company.

What Formats are documents available in?

All downloaded documents are provided in Adobe PDF (Acrobat) file format. Some legal documents, such as Estoppel certificates must be original and have to be picked up from our office.

What happens if I download a file I can not open?

All documents are in Adobe PDF (Acrobat) file format. You can download the free Adobe PDF (Acrobat) Reader from the Adobe website: <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>

How long do I have to download the file?

- For Immediate Download or Free Download Documents, delivery starts immediately after payment confirmation. The files will be available for 72 hours after the completion of your order.
- For Delivery Documents the files will be available for 72 hours after the email confirmation notifying you of the completion of your order.

What if the document I require is not available for purchase?

Please send your request to: documents@condominiumfirst.com

Who can I contact if I have a question about the documents I have ordered or am planning to order?

Please send your requests to: documents@condominiumfirst.com

Why do I have to pay for the documents if I am an Owner - shouldn't they be supplied to me free of charge?

The only documents that are routinely sent to owners are the Budget/Fee Schedule, Audited Annual Financial Statement, Insurance Certificate and A.G.M Minutes which are included with the notice of the upcoming A.G.M. If you require these documents they are considered to be replacement documents and therefore must be purchased. All other documents are not routinely released to owners and must be purchased as per the Condominium Property Act section 74, which states: "The Corporation may charge a reasonable fee to compensate it for the expenses it incurs in producing and providing a document required under this Act".

Who sets the price of the documents?

The management company sets the price of each document.

How safe is my credit card payment?

Your credit card payment is absolutely secure. When you are ready to check out and pay for your documents, you will be directed to an online merchant processing company called MiraPay for secure credit card payment. MiraPay handles all the processing, verification, and payment authorization. You don't use your credit card until you are on their site. Condominium First Management Services Ltd. never receives the credit card information. Once the payment has been verified and approved, MiraPay notifies us of the successful transaction, and the documents are automatically made available for download or pick-up

Can I return a download or get a refund?

Due to the nature of electronic downloads and that Condominium First Management Services Ltd. does not control the Condominium Documents and the Materials posted via the Site; there is a NO REFUND policy in place. Condominium Documents, Materials and Service are sold on an "as is" basis.

What are the usage restrictions for the documents I have purchased?
